Dear Rose Mary:

Louise received a letter from her aunt, Mrs. Fleming, a retired college professor, in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and since the letter refers to a subject in which there might be some interest, I am taking the liberty of quoting from it and sending it to you for your information.

Louise's aunt is a close friend of former Governor Edwin Mechem and his family of New Mexico. The comments from her letter are quoted without interpretation:

"Hubert, I am concerned by a number of comments that are going around, and apparently ballooning, about Edwin Mechem, so successfully managing the state campaign for Nixon and never having a word of appreciation from him. The week after election, Dorothy (Mechem's wife) told me that as soon as they reached Albuquerque the queries to Edwin were, 'What did you get out of it?' His reply was that he got what he wanted - Humphrey defeated. But later I heard that he was asked if thanks was all he got and that he didn't get any of those - he didn't hear from Nixon either before or after the election."

Whether the above is correct or not I don't know but I thought that I should write you so the right people could see whether there is any action necessary.

Sincerely,

Miss Rose Mary Woods
Executive Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.
