Add this to the Lloyd Waring file:

After asking about an invitation -- Lloyd said -- We did our job in finance here in Massachusetts -- we had 112% of our assigned goal from the Committee to Re-Elect.

~~They put~~

I fought the man they wanted to put in to run things -- they had the Lt. Gov. as Chairman of the campaign and he is worthless - he put a 24 year old man in who had had no experience. When he was asked why he didn't put someone else with him - or over him - he said he wanted to train him in politics. (Obviously for his own future and didn't care what happened this time).

(The way things are going around here this will probably get the Lt. Gov. a special citation!!!!)

MEMORANDUM

TO: Clark MacGregor
FROM: Rose Mary Woods

In reply to your memorandum of June 28 concerning Jack Westland. Yes, I do remember him as a long-time Republican Congressman from the State of Washington -- and also remember that he played golf with the then Vice President a few times.

I would have had nothing to do with whether he and his wife received an invitation to the Inaugural festivities in 1969. Those lists were prepared by many people -- primarily by the people in charge of the campaign, both national and statewide.

You will have a lot to say about the invitations for the next Inauguration -- provided you put everyone to work hard enough to defeat those radical young men around McGovern -- and then you can include friends like the Westlands if you feel they rate over people who have been actively helpful over the years.

If they want to be of assistance in this campaign I would suggest they lend Dave Packard a helping hand in Northern California.
