Dear Norm:

Thank you for your letter. It was good to hear from you after all these years.

I made a quick trip to Wichita about a year ago and saw Joe and Byron, but didn't have an opportunity to see anyone else. If you get to Washington, please be sure to call.

Sincerely,

Dwight I. Chapin

PERSONAL

Dear Dwight:

It has been about twelve or fourteen years since you came back to Wichita in the summer to visit Joe Stout, and our paths crossed. I see your name in the papers frequently and after the latest article in Time I just wanted to drop you this note and let you know that I was thinking of you and am proud of you for what you have accomplished.

I am a tax and estate lawyer in Palo Alto, California, but make frequent trips to Wichita, and occasionally run into Byron Stout, who is a bank director with my father. Incidentally, my brother, Daniel R. Glickman, is also in your area, practicing law for the SEC.

Best regards and wishes.

Very truly yours,

Norman H. Glickman
