Dear Mr. Murphy:

I very much appreciate your telephone calls and letter. I am sorry that it was necessary for me to go west with the President-elect at the time that we hoped to get together.

I have read with interest the *Discover America material, and I have forwarded it for Mr. Nixon's attention.

It looks as though I will be in New York until very close to inauguration time, but once we get settled there, I would like to have an opportunity to visit with you at length.

Thank you for your kind offer of assistance.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Ehrlichman
Counsel to the President-elect

Dear John:

We have been successful in staging a memorable celebration in honor of the President of the United States--a celebration that has been shared by the millions of Americans he has vowed to lead "Forward Together." You can be proud of the important personal role which you performed for that historic occasion as Liaison for the President.

All of your associates on the Inaugural Committee, including Executive Director Robert McCune and myself, are proud to have worked with you.

I am sure that the President and the Vice President, in whose honor you served so untiringly, join in our sincere congratulations on a job well done.

Sincerely,

J. Willard Marriott
