MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 20, 1971

MEMORANDUM FOR TOD HULLIN

FROM: EDWARD L. MORGAN EM

SUBJECT: John Ehrlichman appearance on Meet the Press X

Well . . . as one who thinks that the more visibility John gets the better off the President is, particularly as we head towards the next election, I would think this is a good idea.

The argument against it, of course, is that is the White House competing with Cabinet Secretaries and high visibility Presidential appointees.

Therefore, I suppose on balance I'd be inclined to hold back until after the first of the year, when we can get maximum election mileage out of it.

[Faint handwritten notes]
