MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: PATRICK J. BUCHANAN

MARCH 21, 1969

In response to the President's request, I have contacted the national chairman of the College Young Republicans. He is coming in this week; and we will discuss at that time a program whereby he can inform every Young Republican leader on campus of the political dividends -- and the political rightness -- of getting their organizations into the media on the right side of the campus violence issue. The American people are hungry for some neatly dressed young Americans to applaud.

As I said, we can do this at the top level. But the President, I am sure, is aware that most Young Republicans have had little or no experience in political combat -- other than civil wars. Their specialty is scrimmaging with each other over "titles" like "Regional Coordinator" and "State Chairman". We can, however, get the word out to all the campus leaders of the Young Republicans about what we think they should do, for our benefit and for their own as well. And we will report back on progress.

Buchanan
