J: I have to get something off on Okinawa for the Secretary's talk with Aichi.

K: I have stopped that.

J: It's no reason why the Secy. can't sign on this June 17?

K: You have a disaffected Secy. -at-Large and I have a furious economics asst. here.

J: I think it's going well. I had Byrd here who has been a problem and he thinks the two should be kept separate.

K: We will not raise the islands.

J: Peterson called me last night and raised them again.

K: He was ordered by the President to shut up.

J: ~~He said some~~ I said from textile issues how did he expect to get anything from the Japanese. He hadn't thought about it. He thought we would have to go the military equipment route.

K: He has been told we don't do that.

J: He said rather than the Senkakos. I just wanted to let you know.

K: G__ damn it!
