Mommy + Daddy

June 7, 1974

Dear Monty Moncrief:

Believe me, my not writing after your call of April 5 suggesting a plan for getting together the money to pay the taxes which the IRS now claims the President owes is not because your suggestion was not deeply appreciated.

However, the President feels that he must personally borrow this money, and I do not know whether the plan is to refinance his homes or just what method will be used. You may be sure he is most grateful for your thoughtful suggestion and for your continuing friendship, and I know he would want me to extend his thanks and best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

Rose Mary Woods
Executive Assistant to the President

P.S. Of course, my own good wishes accompany his.

Dear Monty:

It was very good to hear from you once again. Since we get a considerable volume of mail both at home and in the office to be sure that your letter is brought directly to my attention, I would suggest that you send it to me at the above address marked: Attention Rose Mary Woods.

It has been a long time since we have had a chance to visit. I hope if your travels should bring you to New York you will let me know so that we can arrange a mutually convenient time to get together.

I want you to know how much I have appreciated your loyal and generous support through the years.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Mr. W. A. Moncrief
