In May, 1953, Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Gibbons stopped in North Vernon, Ind. to visit Mrs. Gibbons' relative by marriage, Mrs. John Woolf.

They stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woolf and Miss Freda Gordon at 106 Jennings Street, North Vernon.

During the course of their visit, they expressed a desire to accept an invitation by Miss Gordon and Mrs. James Goforth, 308 Jennings Street, to visit Louisville, Ky. The date was May 27, 1953.

Mrs. Goforth recalls, they enjoyed the trip immensely.

"The last time they had gone to Louisville was by going to Madison and taking a boat down the Ohio river to Louisville.

"We drove all around, ate at the Blue Bear Cafeteria (very popular then) and went shopping at Stewarts'. (A large department store.) Mrs. Nixon bought a handbag for Pat and little gifts for Julie and Tricia.

"Here, the Courier-Journal found us and asked us over to have our pictures taken and see their new Courier-Journal and Louisville Times building. They took us all over it. IN the picture, they turned a number of pictures of Richard toward us and one to the camera, so we had them to look at, too, and we had a good time," she recalled. Mrs. Goforth and Ms Gordon li
